BONUS MATERIAL

The 16 Groups.

Achievers

With a large presence and a big personality they instinctively know how to get the best out of others. It's important for them to think big and nurture their vision as these are the elite when it comes to material achievement. With an abundance of the positive Yang polarity, these types can be infused with a somewhat masculine energy. They are also: proactive, strong, overpowering, persuasive, objective, logical, unemotional, direct, harsh and miserly. Relationship – Physical and experimental, these Alpha types have high emotions and sometimes explosive actions. A strong, power couple.

Mediators

Psychologically advanced, they are highly self-aware and have a superior understanding of human behaviour. Their skills are best utilised in a social environment but do well in almost any job involving people and have an eye for detail. Modest and fair, they like to serve the needs of others altruistically and subsequently hold a lot of social clout. They are also: objective, understanding, honourable, careful, fussy, pessimistic, worriers and security conscious. Relationship - Based upon mutual respect and understanding, long conversations, hugs and sensual activities.

Commercially Appealing

Physically attractive and vain, they present themselves well and are mentally astute. With big ego's they like to garner attention without making it obvious. Making money is no problem as they know precisely what they can do and how it can be marketed to best effect. Romantic and evocative, they like to chase and be chased equally. They can also be: soppy, clever, artistic, alternative, rebellious, loners, and innovative.

Relationship – With tonnes of sex appeal, both partners are always in demand.

Competitive and egotistical, both may have a long list of previous conquests.

Motivators

Getting people on side and working collaboratively is their biggest skill. They know how to use their personality, sexuality and personal attributes to get ahead in a professional capacity. Working as an intermediary or in middle management appeals because this level of authority offers them the sort of affirmation they seek from staff and seniors. They are also: attention-seeking, secretly controlling, money motivated and have good memories.

Relationship – Will look to each other for support, encouragement and fulfilment.

Like to serve each others personal needs.

Powerhouses

Strong and quiet unless roused. Self-confident and powerful, they like to take charge and see the situation through to a conclusion. Their internal strength attracts people and they are likely to wield a lot of influence. Challenge the Powerhouses at your peril, their bark is bad; their bite is worse. They are also: arrogant, deceptive, private, selfish, authoritative, dictatorial and have difficulty showing their affection.

Relationship – May have conventionally defined roles. Both need a lot of love but will not like this to be known.

Perfectionists

A concentration of Yin energy here creates a cerebral and caring person first and foremost. However, nit-picking, moaning and being dissatisfied are favourite pastimes. Work is very important and they are usually well regarded.

Physically, they like to take good care of themselves and if they do not, there are repressed feelings or emotional issues present. They like to present an image of being cool, calm and collected, but inside they are busy worrying whether this image is coming over or not. They are also: analytical, highly numerate, have large general knowledge, get embarrassed easily and are known for their quirky personalities and sense of humour.

Relationship – They have a big need to talk so they will have to learn to take turns. There's nothing they're not good at.

Mentors

Leading by example, the Mentors walk the walk in order to talk the talk.

Inspiring others is their biggest pay off. Although naturally self-absorbed, they have the mental stability to become aware of it and are usually able to achieve a healthy balance. They make great teachers and loyal friends. Success seems to come to them easily but make no mistake, they will have earned their worth.

Relationship – Forever learning, together they get better and better as they age.

The Gifted

With creative abilities and a rare mental dexterity, they excel in any occupation they choose. Confident and attractive, they are never short of admirers, although they tend to be picky when selecting a partner. They are also: precious, humble, romantic, rhythmical, open and spiritual.

Relationship – They seek someone equally attractive and with a high status or high self-worth which will eventually unfold in high status. Both will find deep respect for each other.

Storytellers

With their heart on their sleeves they go through life learning its lessons and then they will turn it into a beautiful story to share with the world. Striving always to keep their feet on the ground, they observe the world through an artistic lens and articulate their feelings truthfully. They are also: honest, rebellious, popular, energetic, attractive, particular and demanding.

Relationship – highly sexed and with a thirst for new experiences, life with a storyteller is never dull. Together, they keep each other forever entertained in every way possible.

Genius'

Hiding behind their big personalities and sense of humour are the Genius'. Is there anything they don't know? Along with a highly evolved mind comes a self-importance. Riding the fine line between supreme self-confidence and extreme insecurity, they question whether they really are that advanced. They are also: self-effacing, organised, humorous, well-loved yet egotistical, misunderstood and often misconstrued.

Relationship - Few understand their plight. That's why they stick together and make a very loyal union.

Activists

With a nose for justice and a fearless attitude, Activists fight to create change and promote equality. This is the second grouping of concentrated Yang energy which gives them a strong sense of purpose, forward motion and confidence with which to proceed. Highly effective and sometimes forceful personalities, it may come as a surprise that they have a need for external affirmation to convince them that their ideals are worth striving for. They are also: attractive, single-minded, just, stubborn, diva-esque, selfish and may come across as insensitive when they offer their objective opinion.

Relationship – Faithful and true, this is one of the most attractive groups with spicy personalities so the partnerships range from juicy to volatile but never boring.

Specialists

Whether they have studied a specific subject or not, they have a great deal of knowledge and information about specialist or niche subjects tucked away in their meticulous minds. It is for this reason they should work in an environment that stimulates them as their contribution can be vast and it does wonders for their confidence. Essentially, they are loners but may not seem such. Many are thrust into a position of leadership when it is may not actually be what they want. They are also: aloof, talented, humble, awkward, quiet, geeky, chameleons, addictive, private, abrupt and self-centred.

Aesthetics

Graceful and charming, Aesthetics' are on a search for inner and outer beauty. Fashionable and delectable, they make everyone they come in contact with fall in love with them. Many will be found in creative work environments, especially show business. They are also: sweet, sexy, clever, emotional, open, caring, narcissistic, moody and secretive.

Relationship – It's important that both maintain a sense of who they are as individuals because it's easy for each to get lost in the other, not knowing where one begins and the other ends. A very sexy coupling none the less.

Intuitives

When the caring and creative energies of these Chinese signs meet the practicality of the Zodiac earth signs, we get a bunch of insightful, discerning and somewhat psychic group of types. They know how to make a profit and save money by accurately predicting future events. Their minds understand patterns so what has happened before suggests what is yet to come if you know how to read the events. They are also: spiritual, fun, lively, active, thorough, compassionate, emotional, unpredictable, domestic, neurotic and more detached than they seem.

Relationship – They know they must be open and honest with one another as there will be little the other will not read in their behaviour. Luckily both are naturally loyal and monogamous when settled.

Sirens

Innocent and free spirited their light and airy persona belies their true intelligence. Happy go lucky doesn't necessarily equal naivety, in fact they have good understanding of the universal laws which gives them their ethereal wisdom. Many may come across as hippy's promoting free love and joy. They are also: giving, non-judgemental, loving, generous, fun, optimistic, childish, forgetful, uncommitted, docile and prone to playing upon others expectations of them.

Relationship – Play and escapism will be important as will travel, and the feeling of freedom. Both will provide that for each other but will need to learn how to be serious also when the situation requires it.

Refined Sophisticate

Proper and gracious, they have a positive opinion of themselves and for good reason. They are talented, affable, amusing and understand their worth. They like the finer things in life and do not settle for second best. Not afraid of hard work, they will do what is necessary to sustain their high standards and image. Despite all of this, they are actually more vulnerable than they would ever admit. They are also: tender hearted, gentle, image-conscious, firm, level-headed, focused, pretentious, argumentative, proud and superior.

Relationship – Sensual and loving, both will dote on each other and may see themselves as a unit. Sociable and affectionate as a couple.
